Historical Talk Given By Mrs. King At Ladies Literary

The Ladies Literary Society met at the home of Florella Palmer on Wednesday October 26th.

Presiding was President Emma Dahl who welcomed Norma Wood after her trip abroad and also two new members, Ella Handcock and Ruth Salmon.

Special guests were Lavern Anderson, Angelina Witbeck, Phoebe Dahl, Honnie and Mabel Heninger and May Tollestrup, honorary member.

After the opening exercises the club members wrote brief messages of cheer to Mrs. Edda Brandley and Mrs. Jennie Stone, members who are ill in Raymond and Calgary hospitals.

The house was tastefully decorated for Halloween and the delicious Halloween lunch was enjoyed by all.

The guest speaker, Mrs. Elizabeth King gave the following review on "Alberta's Golden Jubilee Anthology" and newspaper excerpts.

Perhaps you club members will not be happy in what I have chosen to give you today, but as this is the Alberta Golden Jubilee year I felt that it would be fitting for us as a club to pause and concentrate for one afternoon on this special anniversary. With the passing of the years, much of the pioneer history is lost. First hand material often goes with the passing of our pioneers, and so today I have chosen excerpts from the Alberta Golden Anthology and a few other items which I hope will correlate the theme I have chosen today.

It is estimated that 10,000 copies of this Anthology have been sold, perhaps you folks are among that 10,000 and have read the book from cover to cover, if you have please bear with me today. Over 1000 submissions came in to be published in this book but of course owing to lack of space a little over 100 were published.

This years celebration began in Jan. and will continue to the end of the year.

All babies born on Jubilee Day, Sept. 1st, Thursday were given a silver spoon engraved. There were 25 Jubilee babies in all. Seven in the Municipal Hospital Lethbridge, and 18 in Calgary. This is the first baby born in Lethbridge, Gerarda Johanna Alberta Brendregt of Iron Springs.

The last baby made it by two minutes - 11:58 p. m. Thursday.

The very first Jubilee baby was Susan Ferguson of Calgary, born 12:03 a. m. Thursday Morning.

And then a presentation was made to all couples married on Jubilee day. And of course all senior members have and will receive a beautiful schroll. I hope all you who are eligible will get yours.

Jubilee celebrations have been coming thick and fast all over Alberta. Towns and cities have been, will be, and are celebrating in the form of beard growing contests, rodeos, parades, pageants, plays, music, songs, concerts, poems, toasts, etc. No doubt you were there when our town turned out to celebrate, Sept. 3rd. when ribbons were cut to open up our hard serviced highway and main street which I know you all appreciate and enjoy after years of mud and dust. I even salvaged a little piece of the red ribbon used in the event, I felt it was such a momentous occasion. But Mr. Grant MacEwan, noted Western in spite of all these celebrations a Canada Agriculturist, educator, and author, says Golden Jubilee celebrations of Saskatchewan and Alberta have "failed miserably" in what should have been their prime objective.

"The history of Western Canada is one of the greatest success stories of all time," Mr. MacEwan said in an address before the Moose Jaw Canadian Club. "But we are leaving this Jubilee Year no more aware of the importance of that history, of the heritage it has given us, or of the guidance it could give us for the future, than when we opened the celebration last January." Mr. MacEwan said the provinces had a measure of

The first executive meeting of the Warner County A. T. A. Local was held in Raymond Wednesday night November 2nd.

The meeting started with a supper in the Club Cafe at 6 o'clock. Then the group returned to the Raymond High School to continue business.

Mr. W. W. Nalder of the Raymond Schools, as President, called the meeting to order. Mr. Rex Neilson, Sec. and also of Raymond, read the minutes and recorded the business. Those members present were Vice-Pres. Mr. C. Edward, principal of the Coutts School, Mr. McCormick, Councilor and Principal of the Wrentham School Local. Mrs. John Laqua, President of Raymond Sub-local, Mr. Lenchuka, Principal of Stirling School and Pres. of the Sub-local, and Mr. Gerald Gibb Sub-local Representative were also present.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Anderson have been to Salt Lake City. Along with them were Glenn, Gene and Baby. Glenn is attending the University of Utah in view of becoming a chemical engineer.

While in Salt Lake Mr. Anderson received treatment at the Salt Lake Clinic. LeRoy and his son David drove his mother and father home, returning to Salt Lake by air.

A fire on the Halladay-Jones farm recently burned the home and nearly all the belongings of a Dutch immigrant family, Mr. and Mrs. Valdimar and children. The Raymond Fire Dept. was on the scene too late to save the house but kept the fire from other buildings. The family are staying temporarily on the Walker farm where they have had employment in the beet fields.

Welling News

Rae Marie Pilling who is attending Calgary Business College, spent the week-end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pilling of Welling.

Welling M. I. A. had their Halloween Party Tuesday night. The hall was decorated in true Halloween Custom with scarecrows, witches, black cats and all. The opening exercises were followed by a 'sing-song' led by Myrtle Jackson.

Then a trip through 'Wild Spooky Lane' came up. After shaking the hand (rubber glove filled with sand) of Ghost Lorna, they were conducted past several uncanny sights and feel sensations by Arthur and Tillie Wilde.

After that each class had to write down what they had felt, smelled or seen in the dimly lighted lane. The Bee-hive girls came nearest to naming them correctly and won the prize. Miss Ruth Norton of the Raymond School Staff led the group in fun games, after which all crunched popcorn and apples.

Junior and Senior M Men and Gleaners had a most interesting Fireside following the Sunday evening service. The Guest speaker T. George Wood gave some splendid descriptions of the shrines and sanctuaries where greater part of the people of Japan worship. Post cards and books added to his talk. Mrs. Wood accompanied him, and the young people really enjoyed what they told of their trip to Japan.

Stirling furnished the program for Sunday Evening Service at Welling. Member of High Council was Wilford Brandley, and his wife Louie who touchingly sang "Resignation". She was accompanied by Miss Hoagensen. The returned missionaries were Mervin Hogensen and Wayne Hartley. All the speakers gave inspirational and faith promoting talks and Mervin also rendered a solo, which was enjoyed by all.

The new home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bullock now of Lethbridge was the place of meeting of the Bullock family on Sunday afternoon. Mr. Alvin Bullock, also Earnest and Alda were Welling representatives. Mrs. Holt of Raymond, a cousin of the Bullocks, and her daughter Emma Dahl were present. Many things pertaining to family genealogy were considered and discussed, and all had an enjoyable time.

The regular monthly meeting of the Raymond W. A. of the United Church was held Thursday evening Nov. 3rd, at the home of Mrs. Irene Minlon. A good attendance was present.

Mrs. Frances Lund, in the absence of Mrs. S. J. Dainard took charge of the meeting. Mrs. Doreen Douglas, treasurer, gave the financial report. Mrs. Val Atwood reported on the success of the Fowl Supper held in the United Church Hall on October 28th. Mrs. Roy Dahl reported on the successful sale of work at the Fowl Supper. The forth-coming Christmas party to be held at the next regular meeting was discussed.

At the conclusion of the meeting, lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. Minlon, assisted by Mrs. Margaret Laqua.

Funeral Services For Marie Hall Curran

The Funeral Services for the late Mrs. Marie Hall Curran - age 30 - of Drayton Valley were held at the Christensen Funeral Home October 20th at 2 p.m. Bishop Hatch of the L. D. S. Church conducted and the invocation was offered by Ryden Shurtz. Two songs were beautifully rendered by Clara Reithman, Ruby Johnson, Clara Smith, Winona Johnson, Ronald Francis, Ryden Shurtz and Byron Shurtz, accompanied by Mrs. Frank Pozzi at the piano. The two speakers were President J. Golden Snow of Raymond and Austin S. Brown uncle of the deceased, from Basalt, Idaho. Benediction was given by Byron Shurtz of Lethbridge.

Palbearers were Roy Hall, Grant Hall, Bert Hall, Harris Hall, Ralph Mitchell and Gordon Allen.

Mrs. Curran is survived by her husband Leonard and four sons, her mother and father, Leonard's mother and father, two sisters and a brother, also by Marie's grandfather J. D. Hall of Raymond and many other relatives. Interment was in the Temple Hill Cemetery, the grave being dedicated by Bishop Murry Holt of the Raymond First Ward. Christensen Bro. of Lethbridge were in charge of arrangements. There were many lovely flowers as tributes to the beloved Mrs. Curran.

The Sunday Night Service of the Raymond Second Ward on Oct. 23rd was well attended, no doubt due to the special appeal of the Bishopric for better attendance.

Bishop Evans was in charge. Grant Heggie offered opening prayer. The Sacrament Service which was very impressive was administered by three priests and eleven deacons with sixteen deacons in attendance.

The speakers of the Stake High Priesthood were from Stirling. Elder Charles Parrot Jr. treated the topic, "There is Only One Church—Christ's Church". Elder Lyman Hardy spoke of "The Importance of Keeping Records" and Darwin Oler gave an address on "Temple Marriage".

A saxophone solo by Delbert Oler was enjoyed as was a vocal duet sung by Irene Allred and her young daughter.

Honored guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie L. Palmer recently were Mr. and Mrs. A. Palmer of Lethbridge. The occasion was a lecture and the showing of pictures of Pakistan, taken while the Palmers were in that country.

After the lecture which was very interesting, Mrs. Palmer modelled several Pakistani ladies' costumes. With each one she wore matching shoes which were beautifully hand-embroidered, exquisite handbags, exotic head-dresses and the matching jewelry.

Mr. Palmer also showed a couple of mens' costumes, complete with the turbans. Also displayed was a most beautiful jewel-case and jewelry.

Shown also were pictures of countries they visited on their home-ward journey including France, Germany, Holland, Switzerland and Egypt.

A most delicious lunch was enjoyed by all. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Attwood of Bow Island, Mr. and Mrs. Delman O'Brien and Mr. Delbert Palmer of Lethbridge.

Scout and Bee Hive Party Huge Success

The Taylor Stake Scout and Bee hive party Friday night, under the direction of Stake leaders, Roy Woolley and Helen Peipgrass was a decided success.

The wards in the Stake were well represented with over 150 young folk in attendance.

As the Scout and Bee hive youths entered the Rotunda with their leaders, they received a warm welcome by Stake Leaders.

The Rotunda was decorated in scenes of moons, stars, trees, owls, etc., on a blue background which was made by the Raymond school teachers.

As everyone entered the main hall their eyes rested upon skeletons, goblins, ghosts, cats, bats and witches hanging from the ceiling.

Stake Supt. of Y. M. M. I. A. was Master of Ceremonies.

The singing was under the direction of Stake choirster and organist Ruth Salmon and Emma Dahl.

Games were conducted under the direction of Celia Navratil, Helen Phillips and Midge Fawns.

"Spook Alley" was under the direction of Roy Woolley and judging by the laughing and screaming they had a merry time.

Ron Vincent, Lethbridge District Field Scout commissioner and his charming wife were present, also Chairman of the Chinook District of scouting, Godfrey Holmes was in attendance.

A delicious lunch was served by the Stake officers.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex W. Davis of Hamilton, Ontario are at present visiting in Raymond at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Orson Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. L. Bigelow, a grand-daughter. While Mrs. Davis will stay in Raymond the coming winter, Mr. Davis is leaving for California to visit other members of their family. He will join Mrs. Davis in Raymond in the spring where they plan on establishing permanent residence.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Proctor held a most joyful gathering in the Lethbridge L. D. S. Recreation Centre at 19st. and 10th Ave. S. on Sat. Oct. 29th from 3 to 9 p. m.

The occasion was in honor of Mr. Proctor who was born November 1st, 1885 in South Cottenwood, Salt Lake Co., Utah. In 1917 he came to Stirling with his wife and five children from their native state and has been engaged in farming and in many civic and Church activities throughout the years. The family now numbers sixty-one.

Every one present helped make the occasion a pleasant one. The mothers visited as they prepared dinner in the spacious kitchen. The fathers helped prepare the tables in the banquet hall. Making Jack-O-Lanterns was a pleasant pastime for the juniors and the little ones, with supervision, found much to interest them in the play-room.

A beautiful rose-bedecked birthday cake made a charming centerpiece on the U-shaped table at which dinner was enjoyed by fifty-one guests,—two sons with wives, six daughters with husbands, twenty-nine grandchildren, two great grandchildren, and two friends and the guests of honor.

As all helped in preparing the dinner so each family shared in giving a delightful program of songs, poems, jokes, talks and piano selections with Jos. E. Proctor acting as Master of Ceremonies.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Kiddle, Mr. and Mrs. B. Baker of Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. E. Proctor, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Nilsson, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Seely of Lethbridge, Dr. and Mrs. F. N. Spackman, of Cardston, Mr. and Mrs. Noel Brandley of Monarch, and Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Proctor of Arrowood,—all with their families. Other guests were Del Olsen of Fort Macleod and Douglas Musson of Lethbridge.

A Halloween Party was held at the home of Jane McMullin in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Thurston Smith who are leaving Raymond to make their home in Lloydminster.

Co-hostesses were Jolayne Hill, Vivian Preston, Melba Mehew, Margaret Bridge and Alma Mendenhall. The house was tastefully decorated for Halloween and most of the guests arrived in traditional Halloween costumes. Those who didn't dress had the privilege and the help of the others in of gay, old clothes which Jane had ready.

The table, bright and gay in Halloween designs was laid for a full-course dinner for thirty guests.

After the dinner and much fun, the guests went to the Mutual Dance.

Special guests at the festivities were Bob and Barbara Walker from Calgary, June Fawns, Alma and Betty Evans.

The Priest Class of the Second Ward held a Cottage Meeting at the home of Bishop and Mrs. Alma Evans where LaRon Woolley took charge with Larry Duncombe as advisor. Roger Hawkins and Guy Sabey were the speakers of the evening with Betty Evans guest speaker. Judy Strong and Diane Nilsson sang a duet.

The party concluded with a delicious lunch enjoyed by all.

W. I. News

Womens Institute Monthly Meeting was held in the Legion Hall October 14th at 2:30 p.m. Eighteen ladies were present, the roll-call being 1 penny for every inch around the waist. Mrs. Ira McBride gave a report on the previous Saturday in the Legion Hall in which all Womens Inst. Dist. were represented. The Fair next year will be held at Owendale. A traveling tray was given to the Dist. that won the most prizes. This was taken by Coutts for this year. Their name will be engraved and next year it will move again.

Mrs. Rayo Woolf gave a paper on the United Nations Exchange Program (Educating the World for Peace when War Ends). The U. N. Charter was not signed until 1945. In 1940, in Dunbarton Oaks, men from many nations met to organize a plan to have peace. It took many months to become thus organized. Until there is an equal distribution of food there can not be peace.

Mrs. Harold Stevens gave a reading "Thankful" by Edgar A. Guest. The door prize was won by Mrs. I. Kichen. Lunch was served by hostesses Mrs. T. Allen and Mrs. W. McMullin.

Original Works Of Chris Tollestrup Enjoyed By Group

An appreciative audience of over 300 people gathered on Sunday morning Oct. 30 to hear a special program of sacred songs, readings and solos. This program was presented by the Second Ward Gospel Doctrine Class and was the lesson thirty seven—"The Literary Beauty of the Doctrine and Covenants". It featured two beautiful Anthems composed by Christian Tollestrup "The Lord Hath Brought Again Zion and "Hear Oh Ye Heavens". The words were taken from the Psalms of the Doctrine and Covenants. A choir of approximately twenty voices sang the stirring anthems. Mr. Tollestrup's compositions require voices with a wide range of notes. The sopranos high notes were beautifully and powerfully rendered as were all the other sections of the choir. By special request Mr. Tollestrup presented one of his favorite compositions "My Soul Delighteth In The Great Goodness of the Lord". It was beautifully and solemnly rendered by Jos. McClain who has sung under Mr. Tollestrup's leadership for many years. Marie Matkin, one of Raymonds outstanding soprano singers sang the solo "For Thus Saith the Lord". A baritone solo was rendered by Delbert Oler and Karl Gemlich sang a baritone solo. Mr. Tollestrup's brief introduction to each number helped the audience to appreciate the meaning and beauty of the sacred words and music.

Paul Redd gave a prelude of events from the Book of Mormon leading up to the passage second Nephi Chapter four.

Opal Wiggill daughter of the eighty-year old leader and composer was the accompanist for all numbers. Musical scores were prepared by Elinor Hudson, Paul Redd and Opal Wiggill.

President Leslie L. Palmer conducted the lesson and gave appropriate settings for each Psalm that was read and for each anthem sung. This helped the audience appreciate the grandeur of the thought as well as the beauty of its form. Psalms were read by Shirley King and Betty Evans and Geraldine Palmer.

Bishop Evans paid tribute to Brother Tollestrup for his outstanding contribution to music in Raymond. He recalled hearing his music rendered at a sacred pageant presented by the Mormon Church at Palmyra, New York.

Arlidge Hill expressed appreciation to Brother Tollestrup and to all those participating on the program.

Much credit for the success of the program is due to Virginia Wilde, who worked diligently and enthusiastically to make the arrangements for the presentation.

The following people were members of the choir—Marie Matkin, Mary Anderson, Jeanine Jensen, Evelyn Melchin, Mrs. Tickson, La Von Dahl, Zelda Woolley, Rose Hudson, Elizabeth King, Gen Hawkins, Madge Fairbanks, Velma Bigelow, Helen Sabey, Dorothy Strong, Irene Allred, Eleanor Hudson, Paul Redd, Ira McBride, Dean Rolison, Wess McMullin, Karl Gemlich, Delbert Oler, Jos. McClain, Delmar Broadhead.

Christian Tollestrup is a self learned musician. He can compose for any musical instrument, piano or voice. There have been many requests for the program numbers to be repeated at a future date.

HOW ... DOES A STRONG FINANCIAL SERVICE Sell Wheat?

In many ways! The Treasury Branches stand behind the man on the land from the time he sows his crop until it is time to sell. We do this because we have confidence in Alberta and Alberta's farmers.

Running a farm is like running any other business — money is necessary to purchase seed, repair machinery, or expand the farmer's interests. He also requires such protection as fire and hail insurance, and safety deposit boxes for titles, deeds and other valuables.

By working in partnership with the farmer, we are serving the farmer himself, and the entire Province. For an active farm economy means higher living standards for the whole of Alberta. The full facilities of the Treasury Branches are geared to the special needs of not only the farmer, but all the people of Alberta.

HISTORICAL TALK

success in the 'small material things' such as beard growing contests and the honoring of living pioneers but for the most part we have been too busy with the affairs of today and planning for the affairs of tomorrow to bother with what is past."

One of the objectives of the jubilee celebrations could have been the writing of the full history of the Canadian West and the teaching of that history in Canadian schools, he said.

Mr. MacEwan made a survey of his own to find out just how much was known of the heroes of Western Canada among the youth. He said they knew absolutely nothing about them. He also said our public libraries barely give mention to them.

"Everyone knows that Western Canada has millions of bushels of wheat that it doesn't know what to do with, but how many know that just 75 years ago this area got an order for 5,000 bushels and could not fill it, could only ship 800 bushels in fact."

He said the acquisition of Saskatchewan and Alberta history by the next generation is more important to the province than the addition of dozens of oil wells.

"It means dealing in intangibles but it makes the world go 'round. Until the people have acquired a sentimental outlook towards their country, they are not the best citizens a country can have."

At one time a student going to college, asked this question of the Professor, "What is the use of history anyway?" And this is the answer the Professor gave in the form of a question to the student, and I would ask you folks to think about it for a moment. The Professor asked this question, "What happens to people who lose their memory?" Doesn't that question make one realize how very important it is to write and retain history and keep records, religious and otherwise.

We might ask why we celebrate the 50th year? Why not the 40th. or the 60th? But ever since the children of Israel were commanded to mark the 50th year as a day of remembrance and in gathering and a day of celebration the world has observed the 50th year.

We might just briefly mention our own Mormon towns. Each one has celebrated its 50th. year. Lethbridge, which had no Mormons then, was founded in 1885 by Alexander Galt and his son Elliot. Cardston in 1887, founded by Chas. Ora Card, Magrath in 1899 and two weeks later Stirling was founded by Theo Brandley and company. In 1901 Raymond was founded by Jesse Knight.

We recently received a paper from Ted King telling of celebrating the town of Burley, Idaho on its 60th. anniversary. It contains a lot of early pioneer history about the Silent City of Rocks, near where I and my husband lived when we were young. We have often visited there and climbed to the top of old Bath Rock. My Uncle used to tell me about the Indian battles which were fought there and in this paper it tells of 300 men, women and children being slaughtered there by the Indians and of the escape of only five persons. It tells of one mother with a small baby who was determined to save her baby, the five of them had to crawl on their hands and knees.

The little mother took the clothes of the baby between her teeth and crawled for miles that way and escaped. Soldiers from Brigham City time they arrived 300 were dead.

came to help the whites but by the And so this history is preserved but like Mr. MacEwan says are we too busy with the affairs of today and planning for the affairs of tomorrow to bother with what is past?

Before reading a few articles from the Anthology I would like to read an article from this "Alberta Calls" magazine which was written by a Blood Indian girl. The Indians, as you know, were here before the white man came along. While we were in Mesa, Arizona I became quite interested in the Lamanite people. Several of we mormon ladies were out to the Papago ward Relief Society to help them Quilt 4 or 5 times.
